

Internationally
acclaimed trainer, rider,
and course designer...

Buddy Brown

May 15, 2011

Riding on the United States Equestrian Team from 1974-1979 Buddy Brown was a key component to the team's great accomplishments in the Pan Am Games, Olympics, and World Equestrian Games. This after a great junior career finish of winning the AHSA (now USEF Medal) medal finals in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Buddy jumped right in as a professional winning the Ireland Grand Prix at 18 years old and has continued training, coaching, and course designing ever since.

May 15, 2011 Buddy will share his expertise on course design for Hunter, Equitation, and jumper divisions. He will also present training gymnastics using demonstration riders to help sharpen your horse, your riders, and your skills for the competitive edge.
