Dear Exhibitors, Trainers & Spectators:

River City Equestrian Events is a partnership formed on the common goal of producing an organized, tasteful, and original product for our local equestrian community. Heading into our second year, we hope to build on the success of 2022 while continuing to provide the original RCEE experience that we developed in our first season.

We utilize SAHJA-approved judges, experienced back gate and office personnel, computerized entry software, and certified and licensed EMTs- all at a facility with world class amenities. Additionally we accept credit cards with no additional surcharge.

One unique element of these schooling shows is our reservation process which is designed to operate as theoretical headcount.

All entries must submit a reservation for the show. No entries will be accepted at the show without a prior reservation. Canceling an entry will NOT incur a scratch fee or any type of penalty.

With this in mind, we ask that you notify us as early as possible if you have a reservation that you know you will not use. This will allow us to notify anyone on the waitlist. This policy is in place in an effort to keep our shows at a volume that allows for a quality experience for all participants and staff. Please read our show policies for steps on how to reserve and enter.

To stay informed both before and during our events, follow us on Facebook & Instagram @Rivercityequestrianevents. We will be using our social media pages as our main sources of communication for all shows, both before and during the events. Our website, rivercityequestrianevents.com, is where you can find entry links and dates for all events. We look forward to hosting you in 2023!

Sincerely,

Nancy Gannon, Emma Hainze & Lauren Wasserman
